

Full Name: Ayman Karim

Age: 12

SUMMARY OF MY WORK

This piece of art work relates to life, equality and fairness. For the world to be a better place it is important that all people are treated fairly and equally irrespective of their background be it color, race, religion, creed or economic status. When people are treated fairly and equally, everyone will care for each other, solves any issues together, feels safe and people will live with love, care, unity and fun.

In this piece of art, the background is black and white which is blended together. Life is simple just like the 2 colors, we must open our minds, arms and heart to new things and to new people. Life is about the people we meet, and the memories we create with them. So, go out and start creating.

The cherry blossom tree is a symbol of peace. The red and pink flowers symbolize happiness. When people from different walks of life come together and accept each other and the differences, we strengthen our bonds and ties which brings peaceful relationships and happiness in each other's lives. This creates gratitude and an outlook of hope and optimism towards the future.

The hands of different people uniting in love exhibits the spirit of togetherness. It doesn't matter what we are or where we have come from, we are all one and we will look out for each other in any situation. What better example than the COVID 19 situation we are facing. People are reaching out to one another, helping in any capacity possible and gratitude to the frontline workers who are working tirelessly to save lives irrespective of who we are and where we come from. This is what makes Canada unique, we are united in our differences.

In entirety, the art is inspired by the values that we practice in Canada. Canada, a place that brings people together, each bringing their own strength to make Canada a better place. A better Canada today, tomorrow and forever!